The Honorable Lucien N. Nedzi
Chairman, Intelligence Subcommittee
Committee on Armed Services
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

We were all delighted with your visit here on Wednesday. We look upon the Senior Seminar as the future leadership of CIA and have sought to give the members every opportunity to enlarge their understanding of the place of the Agency in a democratic society.

From all reports you succeeded admirably in conveying understanding of the crucial role of Congressional oversight in the work and development of the Agency. A number of the members and staff have expressed appreciation of the depth and sensitivity of your remarks, and you apparently created just the right note of openness for a frank and free discussion. I hope we will have other opportunities for such an exchange with our senior officers.

Our breakfast talks were profitable and enjoyable for us and, I hope, for you. We look forward to a return visit.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby
